

OPERATION ★ TROOP ★ EMPLOYMENT

A Job Fair for Veterans

As a veteran of our nation's armed services, your work ethic and skills acquired in the military make you well equipped for numerous jobs available in Pittsburgh. On Tuesday, May 11, be sure to attend "Operation Troop Employment," a career fair and expo for the military and their families.

At this career fair, local employers will seek to meet potential candidates for their open positions. Plus, military veterans and their families can gain important knowledge with regard to their military benefits and services available to them.
