

SUMMER
— with the —
SYMPHONY

PITTSBURGH SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA
IN HONOR OF SERVICE

PRESENTS

AN AMERICANA CONCERT

FRIDAY, JUNE 28 AT 7:00 P.M.

SOLDIERS & SAILORS MEMORIAL HALL & MUSEUM IN OAKLAND

Earl Lee, conductor
Katy Shackleton Williams, vocalist
Andrew Fuller, violin
Laura Fuller, viola

Join the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra for an evening of patriotic music and reflective tributes to honor our military personnel. Featuring the favorite "Armed Forces Salute," "Stars and Stripes Forever," "America the Beautiful," and "George M. Cohen Salute" along with Mozart's Sinfonia Concertante featuring violinist Andrew Fuller and violist Laura Fuller.

Reserve your FREE tickets today! Visit pittsburghsymphony.org or call 412.392.4900

This concert is part of the In Honor of Service Program, an initiative to reach more military personnel and families. For information about this program, visit pittsburghsymphony.org/military

The Pittsburgh Symphony would like to recognize and thank The Fine Foundation for its generous support of this program.

